B) Answer these questions.

1) Why was the farmer sad and disappointed?

Answer: The farmer had three healthy and strong sons, but they were very lazy and did not like to work with their father in the fields. Thus, the farmer was sad and disappointed. He was worried about the future of his farm.

2) What did the farmer tell his sons?

Answer: The farmer told his sons that he had buried all his wealth in the field. They had to search for it and the one who found it would get to keep all the wealth.

3) What did the sons decide to do?

Answer: The sons were overjoyed at the news and decided immediately to dig the fields to find the hidden wealth.

4) "The sons saw the ploughed fields and realised their mistake.' What was their mistake?

Answer: The sons saw the ploughed fields and realised their mistake. Their mistake was that they did not want to work in the fields and were lazy. They agreed to dig the farm only to search for the hidden wealth. After digging the fields they realised that if they work hard, they would have a good harvest and will be able to earn money.

5) What valuable lesson did the farmer teach his sons?

Answer: The farmer taught his sons the valuable lesson of hardwork. He taught them that if they work hard together, they would be able to create wealth for themselves and it is only through hard work that one can achieve success in anything.
