B) Answer these questions.

1) What did the jackal hear one day?

Answer: One day when the jackal was wandering in search of food he heard a loud sound and got frightened. When he went towards the noise, he saw a big drum lying under a tree.

2) What did the jackal do with the drum?

Answer: The jackal examined the drum from all sides and then beat the drum with his front paws. On hearing the sound, the jackal thought there was an animal hiding in the drum.

3) What was the Jackal's plan?

Answer: The jackal's plan was to play the drum loudly and attract another animal who could help him tear open the drum.

4) What did the jackal tell the leopard?

Answer: The jackal told the leopard that there was an animal hiding inside the drum. He asked the leopard to tear off the top of the drum with his sharp claws and strong teeth and catch the animal.

5) Why did the leopard become angry?

Answer: The leopard became angry when he did not find his prey inside the drum. He was very hungry and had expected that there would be food for him inside the drum. He angrily blamed the jackal for wasting his time.
