5) Mention three things we can learn from the “tiny teacher”. Give reasons for choosing these items.

Answer: An ant, the tiny teacher can teach us hardwork, discipline and loyalty. I think we neglect these things in our lives. That is why I have chosen these.

Exercises

Question and Answer

1) Discuss the following topics in groups:

- i) What problems are you likely to face if you keep ants as pets?
- ii) When a group of bees finds nectar, it informs other bees of its location, quantity, etc. through dancing. Can you guess what ants communicate to their fellow ants by touching one another's feelers?

Answer:

- i) If we keep ants as pets then we can face such problems as ants can spread everywhere in the house. Thus they can not only bite but can spoil the food also.
- ii) By touching one another's feelers, the ants 'talk' to each other by passing messages through them (the feelers). They might communicate about their mother queen and young ones. It is also their way of greeting each other.
